"WM" Disease in Cotton.

The cause of the "wilt" disease of cotton, which has been more or less destructive during the past two or three seasons, is a fungus which attacks the plant from the soil. It first enters the small roots and spheequently grows into the tap or stem. The result is that the supply of food and moieture carried up from the roots is greatly decreased.

Army of Cumberland Men.

The men who composed the army of the Cumberland have had a remarkable record since the war. Three of the army's generals have become presidents—Grant, Garfield and Harrison. Every commander in chief of the United States army, with the exception of Gen, Miles, served in the army of the Cumberland. Seventeen members have been in the cabinet, thirty-eight have been senators and 300 have been in congress.

Arpsid of Infernal Machines.

Every ship loading at New Orleans with mules or horses under British contracts for use in South Africa is being carefully watched to prevent the placing on board of infernal machines of other destructive ingfruments in behalf of the Boers' cause. The goal especially is subjected to careful seructing.
